

Summary

68 year old Mr. K. developed right-sided ischaemic stroke following percutaneous coronary intervention for Non-ST elevated Myocardial infarction in Korea. He was rehabilitated with physiotherapy, speech therapy and occupational therapy as indicated for the dysarthria and the Left-sided hemiparesis.