

Summary

A 65 years old gentleman, known patient with diabetes mellitus, dyslipidaemia, hypertension and chronic kidney disease, presented to the Urology clinic at NHSL, with lower urinary tract symptoms and urinary incontinence. KUB scan showed prostatomegaly and cystoscopy revealed occlusive prostate with intravesical protrusion. CT IVU was planned to do before curative surgical management.