

Summary

Mrs. N is a 64-year-old woman following episodes of faintishness for 2 months. Last episode on 19/12/18. There were six to seven episodes so far. No obvious precipitating factors. No loss of consciousness during episodes. No features suggestive of epilepsy. On examination there was bradykinesia, rigidity and tremor and postural instability and MMSE scores 21/30. Echocardiography and ECG was normal with normal CT Brain with normal EEG. Diagnosis of Parkinson plus disease was made and discharged with Syndopa.