

Summary

Mrs YDB an eighty-two-year-old patient who is diagnosed with hypertension and bronchial asthma presented with extra capsular (sub trochanteric) right femur fracture following an accidental fall. She underwent corrective surgery. She was mobilized early and her postoperative period was uneventful. She was discharged with a plan of continuing physiotherapy and reviewing at clinic.