

SUMMARY

A 75 year old mother of five children, who had her menopause at the age of 52 with Type 2 Diabetes Mellitus and Hypertension presented with a history of a fall leading to Right sided Neck of Femur fracture and underwent Proximal Femoral Nail surgery and post-surgical rehabilitation done at the ward. Comprehensive Geriatric Assessment, Frailty assessment and falls risk assessment importance highlighted.