

Summary

Mrs. H.K, a 73 year old lady from Weyangoda presented after a sudden fall and had a right sided intracapsular fracture neck of femur. And she underwent a hemiarthroplasty using an Austin Moore hemiprosthesis.

She is a diagnosed patient with diabetes mellitus for 15 years and on admission her capillary blood sugar was high which was controlled later with soluble insulin.