

ABSTRACT

A 30year old female medical representative presented with severe hypotension, oxygen desaturation, recurrent hypoglycemia and hypokalemia. She required immediate resuscitation and ventilatory support. Later it was revealed that she had taken an overdose of hydroxylchloroquine.