

Abstract

Sweet's syndrome is the type of neutrophilic dermatoses and It is very well responded to oral corticosteroids. Our patient, forty year old female presented with characteristic erythematous violaceous plaques and nodules of short duration and very well responded to oral corticosteroid treatment. She was diagnosed clinically and due to treatment response. There were not any underlying causes or precipitants identified in our patient.